Grunts And Groans—

WRESTLING TEAM—Laurel Hildreth, Larry Booth, Jim VanKeuren, Jesse Graham, Curt Hanson, Bill Barnes, John Smolak, Larry Ramaker, Forrest Burton, Dan Ojeda, Duane Howe, Jerry Valenta, Jim Brooks.

Jesse Graham is the first wrestler from Vocational to have won the state championship in twenty years.

Our wrestling team this year not only won as a team, but also as individuals. Duane Howe won the city regionals in his weight division, and Jesse Graham went even farther: he won the State Championship in his weight division. This is the last year that Mr. Cady is going to be the wrestling coach and he had a team to be proud of.

Curt Hanson was injured, but he still came through with a pin for Voc.

And Splashes And Putts—

Our swimming team this year was not successful in striving for a good record. The team didn't win any meets but gained valuable experience that should help in making a good team next year.

Flashing Blades And Flying Ice

Our hockey team was small this year but that didn't stop them. Even before the season started, the Volts were predicted to be an upset team. The season started with consecutive losses to Roosevelt, Edison, North, West, and Henry.

The Henry game was one of the best games the team played all year. The rest of the games were repeats of the first five. The hockey team also had a new coach, Mr. Brown, who came to Voc from Henry, where he coached sophomore hockey.

Faculty vs. the Varsity

On March 19, the Volts varsity played Vocational faculty in a benefit basketball game. No matter how hard the faculty tried, the youngsters just outlasted the "old timers" and the final score was 43-41 for the varsity. The game was refereed by Stan Lipa, a former Vocationalite. ($44.00 from ticket sales went to the Junior Red Cross.)

THE TRACK TEAM this year is composed of mostly experienced tracksters. Shown in the picture below are the boys that make up the main part of the team. The Trade-wind went to press before a picture of the whole team could be secured.

Our Girls Also Practice . . .

MIXED DOUBLES, BADMINTON—Gail Ernest, John Cornell, Velores Olson, David Doying, and Kathy Kolodjski. (Not Pictured) Everst Eddans.

The members of the badminton team are Gail Ernest, first singles; Bonnie Douglas, second; Janice Swart, third; and Pat Daire, fourth. The doubles players are Velores Olson and Sandy Person, first; Joan Janssen and Gerry Roo, second; and Joanne Rozek and Kathy Kolodjski, third.

To Perfect Their Game And Performance

Our flagtwirlers perform during half-time at our football and basketball games.

SCHOOL TOOLS

The variety of school activities is as broad as the midnight sky. They are an essential part in the life of each teenager.

Memories of the Sophomore Talent Show, the all-school play, the Junior and Senior Proms give us a happy glow. Whether we are singing with the choir, voicing opinions at Student Council, chasing after stories for the Craftsman, or performing any other service for the school, we have a feeling of satisfaction for having done our part to make school time more pleasant for everyone.

"All work and no play . . . soon will make us old and gray."

"There'll Be . . .

The Student Council this year was completely reorganized. In the past there has been one representative from each home room. This arrangement made it difficult to get any work done. This year there are eight representatives from each class and the four officers: Jim Thoraldson, President; Pat Patnode, Vice-President; Jerry Larson, Treasurer; and Rosella Bursch, Secretary.

IF YOU were to go into Room 402 on a Wednesday morning between 8:20 and 9:00, you would see the Council in action. Right now Jim is discussing a committee report with the Council.

Some Changes Made"

The Senior Representatives are:

Entertaining at the Royal Court were Mr. Nelson, Mr. Turner, Mr. Whiteley, and Mr. Larson. Shaking hands with Mr. Booth, the M.C., is Mr. Jensen, who joined in the festivities.

Zooming Ahead

THE REGISTRATION Committee is making final preparations for the Conference. On the committee are Connie Blevins, Jeanne Marten, Dave Grant, Denny Weiss, and Joyce Isaacson.

Zooming Ahead . . . The theme of this year's Leadership Conference kept in the spirit of this age of scientific advancement. The send-off speech was given by Miss Margaret Thomson, former Assistant Principal here at Vocational. The members attending were divided into discussion groups voicing opinions on such topics as the Teen-Age Code, P.T.S.A., and Participation of Students in Sports.

The second day began with a mixer in the gym. Mr. Ken Thompson gave the keynote speech. The topic for discussion in the groups was "Opportunities Provided at Vocational." Students from other high schools in the city shared their ideas with the Conference members.

The ideas brought out at the Conference are being followed through in the committees formed as a result of the Leadership Conference.

In Leadership

THE STUDENTS get acquainted at the mixer preceding the Conference.

"PROMENADE," calls Mr. Brown at the mixer. Joining in the fun are Julie Mero and Ray Dinius.

THIS IS ONE of the discussion groups of the Leadership Conference.

of a Better Tomorrow

SAFETY COMMITTEE: The Safety Committee was formed this year to promote safety around the school and in the shop classes. The boys on the committee were from the machine shop. They put posters on the bulletin board to remind us to practice safety. Pictured from left to right are: Bill Brandtner, Helmut Tetzlaff, Lenny Zondlo, Ken Peters and Dan Ojeda.

THESPIAN SOCIETY: The National Thespian Society is an educational organization of teachers and students established for the advancement of dramatic arts in our secondary schools. Their chief aim is to establish and advance standards of excellence in all phases of dramatic arts and to create an active interest in dramatic arts in the high schools. This year's members seated from left to right are: Marlys Martin, Mr. Turner, Lenny Parsons, and Wilma Rand. Standing are: Jim Thoraldson, Jack First, Wayne Haselhorst, Bob Sullivan, and Jack Ergeson.

BAND: The band has acquired someone new in the way of a director, and he is Mr. Henry Arent. The band must be congratulated on the fine job they did during this past year.

Look For . . .

SERVICE CLUB: If you were to come to school on the night of Open House or to any number of school activities, you would see the members of the Service Club in action. They are always ready and willing to help out at various school functions. The Club members include: Bottom Row: Mary Iverson, Judy Leners, Velores Olson, Tony Preee, Charlotte Novatney, Rena Adams, and Barbara George. Row Two: Kathleen Garza, Barbara Rowinski, Carol Boyce, Diane Mayer, Joyce Dukeman, Jeanette Andries, and Judy Johnson. Row Three: Mavis Moen, Karen Brown, Diane Jopp, Gail Ernest, Carla Schoen, Charlotte Zemlicka, and Mary Grisim. Row Four: Marlene Gilbrech, Betty Hrkal, Judy Wendt, Berdena Rorvig, Shirley Kaaria, JoAnne Klempka, Merriam Pettiford, and Dolores Bernhagen. Row Five: Barbara Collins, Carol Monroe, Mary Tohey, Sandy Person, Evelyn Niska, Carole Lundemo, and Patricia Hankey.

AMERICAN BOOK WEEK:

November 18-26 was Book Week with the theme "Around the World in 80 Days." All of the students were invited to visit the library during their English classes to see the various displays of all the new books available there.

The Silver Lining

AMERICAN EDUCATION WEEK: During American Education Week the school was open to the parents to come and talk to the teachers and to create a better understanding of Vocational. During these days a tea was served in the Tea Room for the parents, teachers, and coordinators. From left to right are: Mrs. LaCombe, Mr. Jensen, Mrs. Ivey, Miss Andrews, and Mr. McGimpsey.

BANK DAY: A familiar sight in Room 408 each Wednesday morning is Bank Day. Mrs. Dwyer, the banking advisor, is collecting the weekly bank deposits. With Mrs. Dwyer are Pearl Arnold, Diane Gurry, and Chuck Hawes.

"Ghost 'Writers' . . .

The Show . . .

AUDITORIUM PROGRAM: Here are the sophomores and juniors who saw the Tradewind Sales Campaign. They were given a pep talk by the Tradewind staff. An autograph party was offered to the class with the most subscriptions. The junior class won.

ROW, Row, Row your canoe! And here are Pete Lynch, Sandy Wrobel, Howie Hoffman, and Carolyn Hudoba as they go merrily down the stage in a scene from Nick of the Woods.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY: The burning melodrama, Nick of the Woods was presented by the senior class. Here are a few of the characters from this play: Carla Schoen, Jim Kingen, Norman Pettersen, Marlys Martin, Liz Yurich, and Marie Storius.

Must Go On

THESE humorous hillbillies, Leona Holland and Judy Reese, were among the many performers in this program. Dennis Klein was the Master of Ceremonies, and Mr. Turner and Mrs. Turkington were their advisers. Working together, the sophomore class of '57 displayed their initiative and talent by providing the juniors and seniors with an afternoon of splendid entertainment.

AS PRETTY as a picture, and she is Darlene Lund. Her act was one of the many good acts the sophomores presented in the Sophomore Talent Show.

(Top picture) "STOP, you're hurting him!" But not really, this is just a scene from the program given by the Repertory Players. The cast included Molly Strucken, Victor Contoski, and Lyle Hurd. (Bottom picture) Taking a curtain call after performing many international dances are Romona Montez, and Ray and Pat Romon.

THESE SENIORS changed their manner of speech, dress, and walk for the night of the Harvest Hop. Arnie Peterson, Marlyn Fenning, Tom Schwab, and Bruce Brazil even did a little friendly "fightin'." It was quite a rollicking event, and everybody had a ball.

Get Your Gun

"UNDER Hawaiian Stars" was the theme of last year's Junior Prom. It was an unforgettable occasion for all who attended. Far Bottom: Getting in the Hawaiian mood are Jerry Larson and friend, Ed Groff, and Marlyn Fenning.

← "CALIFORNIA, Here We Come" was often heard in the Senior Class Play, "Nick of the Woods."

A STYLE SHOW was given by the Senior Class with perky Penny Anderson and enthusiastic Ed Rice acting as Mistress and Master of Ceremonies.

"WHO WEARS Short Shorts?" "We do," say Dave Swigart and Carol Hudoba as they admire each other's legs.

"I SEE DeeDee kissing Santa Claus."

"Come Along And Be My-

THERE WERE many home room Christmas parties. Mrs. Willen's home room girls had a party with lots of dancing . . . but oh, the food!

SOME PEOPLE ate, some people played games, but those in Home Room 411 danced until they were ready to drop.

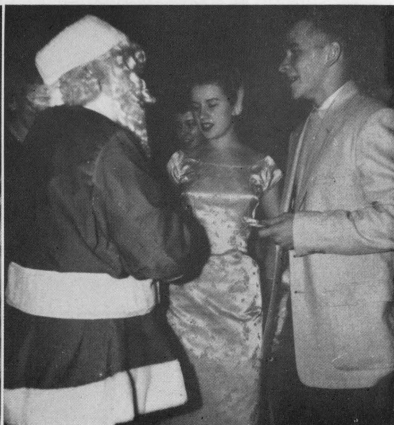

"WANNA STRUGGLE?" And it looks as if Lennie Parsons and Tony Preese are doing just that at the Craftsman Christmas party.

Party Doll"

THEY danced until their shoes fell off!!

Bottom: "That way to your kandy kanes, Kiddies." Bottom at Right: Putting in their Christmas orders are Pat Bickler and Ed Groff.

Let it Snow, Let it Snow

"NOT MUCH snow, but we'll try it anyway just for the fun of it," say Larry Booth, Linda McCune, and Annis Rudd.

Taking a rest after the excitement of Snow Day are Miss Sorum, Mrs. Lemke, and Mr. Brown.

(Picture extreme right) "Oh boy, did I feel that last bump. I must be getting old. I hope I can make it back up again."

. . . Let it Snow

"WHO PUSHED me?" But anyway, Mr. Sanford enjoyed the ride.

IT LOOKS as if Don Johnson is trying to imitate a rabbit. This little episode took place on Sno-Day.

CAROL Knutson and Bill Whittnebeen are wobbling as they race toward the finish line during one of the races on Senior Sno-Day.

NOW DON'T get the wrong idea . . . Betty and Howie are just passing the grapefruit as Rose Jubera watches, hoping their team will win.

Candid Shots . . .

"DO WE really have all those parts in our ears?" "Yes, and here's why . . ." explains Mr. Chambers to his Biology Class.

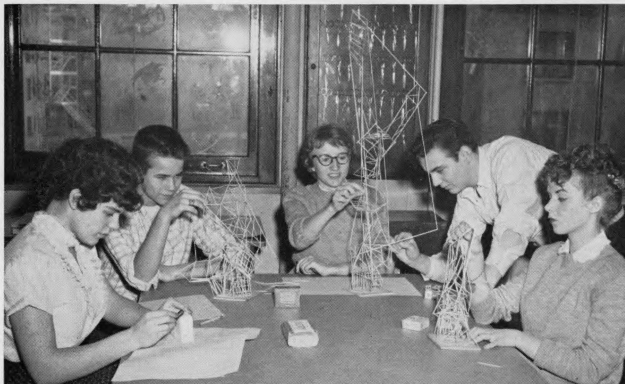

GEOMETRY really isn't so complicated if you understand it. This student is explaining a very complex problem to the class as Mr. Eikeland looks on.

WELL, you see it goes like this. But we had better let Mr. Voss explain it to Sharon Adams, Joyce Hobbs, and Pat Bickler.

MISS Roskilly's Art Class creates many different objects. At this time they are working with toothpicks and soap.

THE METAL ARTS Class, taught by Mr. Reed, creates many pieces of jewelry which are sold in the school store.

. . . Around School

THESE STUDENTS are as busy as beavers as they work on the dresses they are making in Mrs. Tarnowski's Sewing Class.

A medal and certificate awarded by the Minneapolis Club of Printing House Craftsmen to a student outstanding in excellence in the graphic arts.

Charles Berzins, Printing

LOYALTY TREE: Have you been walking around with your eyes closed, or have you seen it, too? Vocational's "loyalty tree" with the double VV's was discovered on Third Avenue near the main entrance. It was just discovered, but it has been there for many years. The structure of its branches symbolizes "Vocational's Victories"—not only in sports, but also in education, and the building of citizenship and good character as well.

"We'll Always Remember Graduation Day"

The climax to hard work, along with a lot of fun, is graduation. At graduation we forget the trying times and think of all the wonderful people and friends we will be leaving. We will be entering a new world of trials, disappointments, opportunities, and happiness. But whatever the future holds in store for us, we will always carry the memories of Vocational with us.

VOCATIONAL LIBRARY

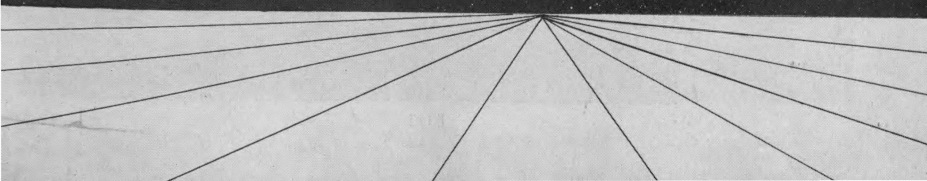

Without knowledge we are in the dark. . . . Through our teachers we see the light of learning.

The principal, assistant principal, teachers and coordinators all make up a necessary part of our school life. We have been given help not only by these people but by the custodians and office staff as well.

All these friends, working together, help us chart our course for the future.

“You’ll Never Walk Alone”

Mrs. Kenyon, Coordinator for Sales & Receptionist Training, Needle Arts, Cosmetology; Mr. McGimpsey, Assistant Principal; Miss Andrews, Coordinator for Business, Commercial Art, Metal Arts; Mr. Schafer, Coordinator for Barber Shop, Cabinet Making, Pattern Making, Shoe Repair; Miss Lewis, Coordinator for Nursing, Hotel and Restaurant Training; Mr. Tietz, Coordinator for Arch. Draft, Electricity, Printing, Radio and TV, Tailoring, Upholstery.

THE COORDINATORS take time out from their busy schedules of helping students find proper jobs and teaching trade-relation courses to enjoy a leisurely cup of coffee in the teacher's lunchroom.

Night School Staff—Mr. Peltó, Mr. Latterell, Miss Eckerman, Miss Mo (Assistant Principal—Evening School), and Mrs. Paquette.

DR. PUTNAM stated, “Not only the chance to keep on learning, but the chance to work with those of like interest makes going to night school a particularly satisfying experience.” Last year alone some nine thousand Minneapolitans attended Vocational Night School.

Mr. Almen, Radio, Related Math; Mr. Anderson, Stenography, Typing; Mr. Arent, Tailoring, Band; Miss Awes, Practical Nursing; Mr. Baker, Printing; Mrs. Beatty, Nursing; Mrs. Belton, Power Sewing.

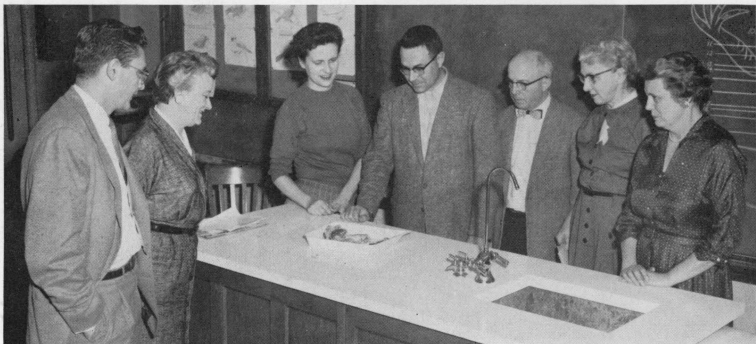

"WHAT'S the joke, Miss Awes?" everyone seems to be asking.

Mr. Booth, Machine Shop; Mr. Boyer, Related Math; Mr. Brown, English; Miss Budd, Pre-Nursing; Mr. Budish, Arch. Drawing; Mrs. Byrne, English, Tradewind; Mr. Cady, World History, Coach-Football, Wrestling, and Track.

"HERE'S to Old Vocational!" Looks as if the teachers have as much pep as the students have when it comes to school spirit.

Mr. Chambers, Related Science, Asst. Football Coach; Mrs. Chapman, Speech Correction; Miss Christenson, Nurse; Mr. Dellwo, English; Mr. Dickey, Modern Problems; Miss Dietrichson, Visiting Teacher; Mrs. Dwyer, Stenography, Typing.

JUST looking at this picture, you wouldn't suspect that these pleasant looking people were inhaling whiffs of formaldehyde, would you? Mr. Dickey, Miss Dietrichson, and Mrs. Dwyer are the only ones who seem to be gritting their teeth as they survey the poor remains of an old frog.

Mr. Evans, Related Drawing; Mr. Eller, Math; Miss Eich, English; Miss Edblom, English; Mr. Eikeland, History; Miss Fisk, English, Craftsman.

THESE members of the faculty drop in on Miss Edblom to see her attractive display on Minnesota's Centennial Year.

Mr. Frostad, Cabinet Making, Stage Manager; Mr. Gilles, Restaurant Kitchen; Mrs. Glenly, Hotel Restaurant; Mr. Graham, Barbering; Mr. Greenwood, Commercial Art; Mr. Hall, Veterans Drafting.

"TOO MANY cooks spoil the broth." Mr. Gilles mixes up a batch of cookies while the others eagerly await the outcome.

Mr. Hanson, Photo-Offset Printing; Miss Hauger, Textiles; Mr. Hendrickson, Related Math; Mr. Hiltner, Electricity; Mr. Hinshaw, Auto Mechanics; Miss Huntoon, Social Studies; Mrs. Ireland, Lunchroom Manager.

"SOMETHING seems to be very interesting?"

They Help Us . . . . .

Mrs. Johnson, Commercial Art; Mr. Kaercher, Sheet Metal; Mr. Karbo, Tailoring; Miss Kean, Typing, Filing; Mrs. Kelley, Librarian.

"WE NEVER stop learning." Teachers frequently use the library for research and further study.

Mrs. Kwakkernaat, Music; Mr. Larson, Pattern Making; Miss Leachman, Sales and Receptionist Training; Mrs. Lemke, Physical Education; Mr. Lindman, Modern Problems, Spanish; Mrs. Lund, Asst. Librarian; Mr. Lundberg, Electricity.

"MUSIC makes the world go round." Teachers gather around the piano as Mrs. Kwakkernaat plays an old favorite.

Mr. Meyer, Auto Mechanics; Mrs. Murray, English; Miss Myers, Cosmetology; Mr. Carl Nelson, Business Machines, Typewriting; Mr. Wallace Nelson, Printing; Mr. Nordstrom, Electricity.

SAFE driving is a big project around school this year, as Mr. Meyer illustrates to a few of the interested faculty members.

“Cross Over the Bridge”

Mrs. Passon, English, Lip Reading; Mr. Peyla, Cabinet Making; Mr. Piper, Welding; Mr. Reed, Metal Art; Mr. Rheinhart, Auto Mechanics; Mrs. Rice, English.

MRS. PASSON appears to be leading the discussion on the benefits of Educational TV.

"Whistle . . . . .

Mr. Rodde, Upholstery; Miss Roskilly, Commercial Art; Mr. Sanford, Machine Shop; Mrs. Schoffman, Cosmetology; Mr. Schaefer, Radio and Television; Mr. Schow, Machine Drafting; Mr. Stoltman, upholstery.

MR. SCHOW looks as if he is ready for any emergency as he is backed up by the others.

Mrs. Shepard, Hotel and Restaurant Trg; Mr. Sjowall, Aviation Mechanics; Miss Sorum, Social Studies; Mr. Spaulding, Auto Mechanics; Miss Steenerson, Bookkeeping; Mr. Sween, U. S. History.

THE MAP in the background brings thoughts of past trips to these teachers. They all seem to be dreaming of this year's summer vacation.

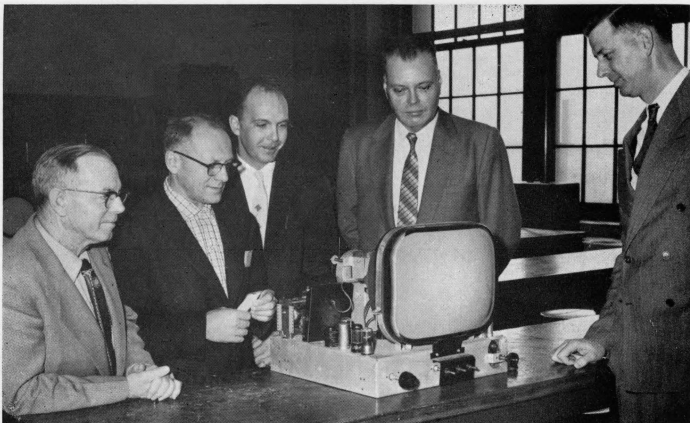

Mrs. Tarnowski, Needle Arts; Mr. Thompson, Comm. Art; Mrs. Turkington, English; Mr. Turner, English; Mr. Van Sickle, Radio and Television.

EVERYONE enjoys dancing as you can see.

Mr. Weisner, Shoe Repair; Mr. Wahl, English; Mr. Whiteley, Drama; Mrs. Willen, Calculating Mach; Mr. Withrow, Physical Education; Miss Woltman, Practical Nursing; Miss Wood, Math and English; Miss Ziegler, Cosmetology.

MR. WHITELEY is pointing out some of our modern lighting equipment.

Mr. Jones, Related Math; Mr. Fiedler, U. S. History; Mr. Voss, Science; Mr. Swenson, Radio and TV; Mr. Jackson, Science.

"OH, HOW complicated!" seems to be the comment of all these teachers.

Mrs. Brophey, Mrs. Conley, Miss Heir, Mrs. Hummel, and Mrs. McLaughlin.

ALWAYS ready, willing, and able to help you if they can, (and they can) is this cheerful office staff who works with Vocational's clan.

To Watch Over Us

Mrs. Schaal, Miss Martin, Mrs. Schermerhorn, Mrs. Peters, and Mr. Naslund.

OUR SCHOOL runs efficiently through the combined efforts of the office staff.

Mr. Krekelberg, Mr. Novack, Mr. Johnson (Engineer in Charge), Mrs. Mable Smith, Mr. Severson, Mr. Dahl, and Mr. Moore.

OUR HELPFUL maintenance staff is always around when we need them—except for all those who weren't "around" when we took this picture!

"Tell Me Why . . ."

Mr. Dellwo, Miss Budd, Mr. Turner, Mrs. Passon, and Mr. Larson represent the faculty in a panel discussion on the opportunities Vocational has to offer.

In February, Vocational invited co-ordinators from the Minneapolis Public School System to tour the building and learn exactly what Vocational has to offer.

Some of our teachers participated in a panel which discussed what kinds of abilities are required for success in different trades. Emphasized was the fact that Vocational is a "regular" high school which requires successful completion of academic subjects as well as proficiency in our trades. Vocational prepares us for either college or a job—or both!

The session ended with a banquet presided over by Mrs. Marian Kelley.

P.S. Mr. Jensen received a resounding smack (kiss!) from one of the appreciative group!

Although co-ordinators usually tour the building with their junior high groups, this program was planned with these co-ordinators, rather than the junior high school students, in mind.

THE PRINT Shop renders a big service to our school, and does all the printing for the Board of Education, as well. Mr. Kuppe, Mr. Granum, Mr. Cole, Mr. Nelson, and Miss Martin, are looking at a bulletin that has just been printed.

Mr. Jennings, Coordinator for Auto Mech., Av. Mech., Mach. Draft, Mach. Shop, Sheet Metal, Welding.

Mr. Fries, Machine Shop.

Mr. Murphy, Watch-making.

Mrs. Sears, Nursing Procedures.

Mr. Oster, Curriculum and Teacher Training.

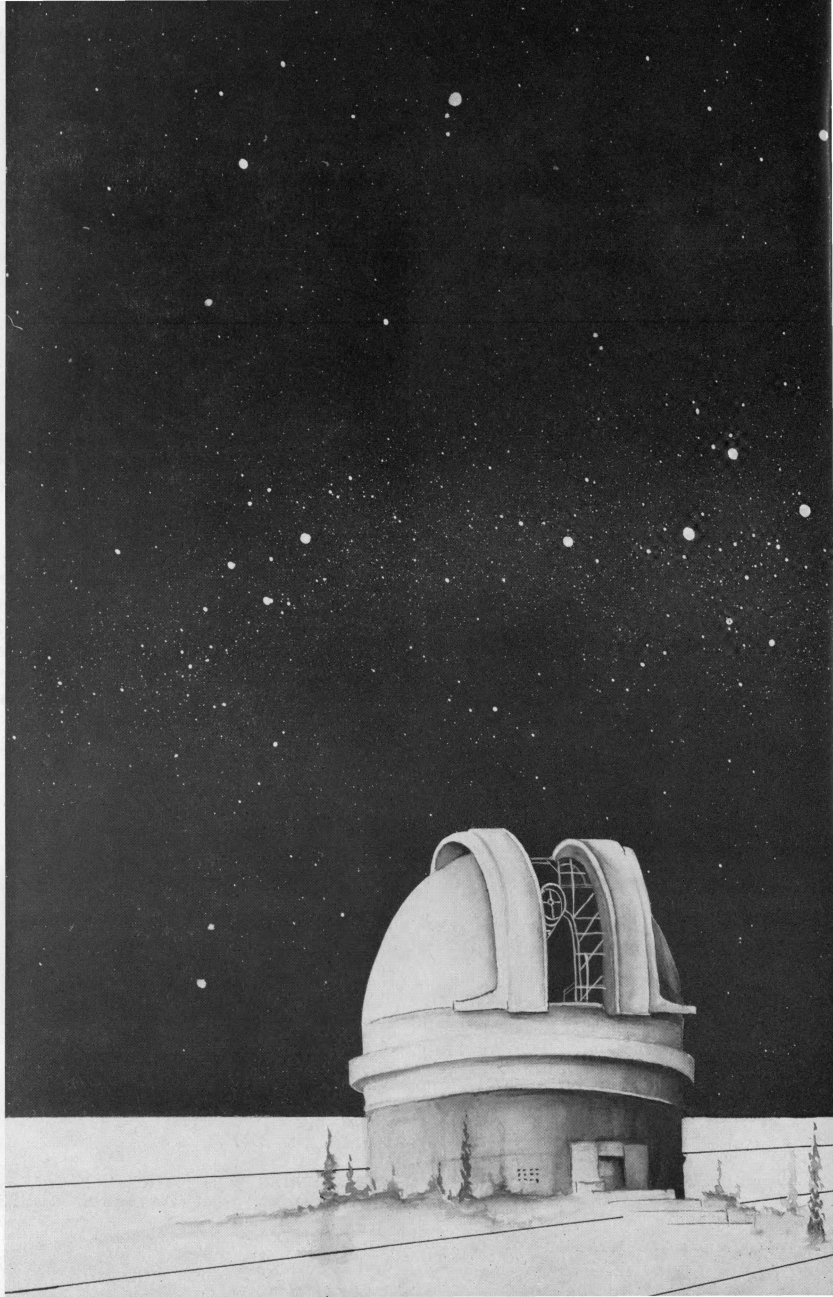

Mr. Thole, Cabinet Making.

UNDERCLASSMEN

As young explorers we do not have our plans fully laid out for the future. We are like many stars scattered through the heavens—each one different—no two alike.

Remember the first day—seven hours of confusion. It was a tangle-town of corridors, classrooms, and strange faces, each hall seeming to lead to a part of the unknown.

The second year became a familiar routine of teachers, classes, and homework. Our plans are finally beginning to take shape.

During this Centennial year we are getting our first glimpse of a new age—the Space Age.

With a mighty roar and a big swoosh—the first U. S. rocket was finally on its way. The launching of the “Explorer” was a thrilling climax to the months of careful planning and research done by our scientists.

Just as advancements are being made in science, progress is also being made in our daily lives. We, in our specialized fields, travel many different roads all leading to one point . . . a better tomorrow.

Pilot—

We have witnessed this Centennial Year, the dawn of a new era which future historians will probably identify as the Satellite Age. This beginning of the conquest of space reminds us again that the earth is shrinking and that two thousand miles of ocean are no longer a barrier between our continent and others.

To live in this new era we not only must learn new lessons, but must also remember those older truths which have guided our civilization through other periods of change and have prepared us for the future which lies ahead.

Actually, the new lessons are new applications of those principles of learning about, working with, and helping our fellowmen in the march of progress. Let us enter the new age with a stronger faith—a faith in ourselves, a faith in our country, and most important, a faith in God.

SENIORS

We are beginning our climb up the stairway to the stars. It will not always be easy—things may not go our way; but the future holds much in store for us — happiness, excitement, and many new opportunities.

We have had three years to study about life and the world. We are not being sent out uninformed. High school may be the end of book-learning for some of us—but it is never the end of learning. Each day presents something new and different.

We have been taught a trade—we have been given the principles of citizenship. Our major task now is to be useful citizens doing our part to make a better tomorrow.

"When the Blue of the Night . . .

SENIOR CLASS ADVISERS. Seated: Miss Fisk, Miss Sorum, Miss Edblom, Mrs. Murray, Mrs. Lemke, Chairman; Mrs. Kwakkernaat, Mrs. Beatty, Mrs. Byrne. Standing: Mr. Turner, Mr. Fiedler, Mr. Eikeland, Mr. Brown, Mr. Evans.

Graduation completed an exciting senior year, but memories will linger . . . homecoming—the first event of the year . . . barefoot boys and bashful girls: everybody got acquainted at our first official senior party . . . our Christmas party had a cheery surprise—Santa Claus himself appeared with something for all . . . snowballs and snowmen were missing, but that didn't discourage us—Snow Day was still a complete success . . . dining and dancing is always a favorite, and so it was at our Senior Banquet . . . but the brightest memories are of the Senior Prom. Every girl was the belle of the ball, and every boy a gallant young man. Everything else was forgotten in a night filled with thrills and excitement, bringing our year to a colorful end.

Co-Pilot—

While this Minnesota Centennial Year gives us an opportunity to measure progress of the past, yet it affords a vantage point from which to view the future. With the advent of atomic power, the jet airplane and the launching of satellites coupled with talk of space travel we may feel a bit uncertain and confused as to the course of things to come, but there is, however, an air of expectancy that should lend encouragement to everyone.

Opportunity beckons from every direction to those who are ready to accept the challenge. We need to remember that new ideas and new inventions do not just happen. They are the result of years of study and hard work. This is an age of imagination and ingenuity—one in which new ideas and skill play a big part. The best way to prepare to take part in the affairs of life is to take full advantage of present day opportunities. Every individual is an important part of the progress of society.

In September each Senior home room chose three people to represent them on the Social, Budget and Nominating Committees.

The Social Committee plans the various Senior class activities of the year. Snow Day was one of these activities, which accounts for the "exquisite" dress in these pictures.

The first but most short-lived of all these committees was the Nominating Committee. They screened nominees for class officers, organized the ensuing election and then promptly folded up their brief cases and disbanded. "Best kind of committee to be on," one of them was heard to comment; "slickest way there is to wiggle out of a year's job."

The Budget Committee met with the Social Committee to decide how much money we would need to finance our parties and commencement. Here the committee turns its back on dull budgets as they look forward to Snow Day.

Cold outside but warm and friendly inside. Soft lights and sentimental music. . . . Everything added its own essence to the atmosphere at the Senior Banquet. Grace was sung by a quartet from the choir before the serving of dinner in the Ballroom of the Radisson Hotel.

“WHICH fork do you use first?”
This question ran through the minds of many of the seniors as they waited to be served.

“GEE, banquets can be fun!” This was a general feeling once the seniors began eating and the uneasiness left them.

Especially For Senior Banquets

EVIDENTLY this is good old-fashioned slow music, not the popular rock and roll.

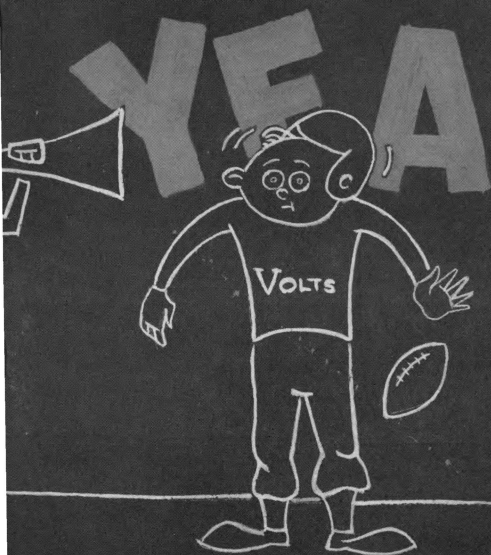

Later in the evening we danced to the music of Jerry Dibble's band. During intermission a few students—Howie Hoffman on the drums, Dave Swigart on the bass and Dwayne Savick at the piano—couldn't resist the lure of those glittering instruments and they and all the dancers had a gay and stomping time. 12:00 brought the end of the dance and the end of the Senior festivity.

Marilyn Roddy and Lee Stark were dancing the popular "chicken".

SPORTS

.. "We're aiming for the sky" ..

Just as some stars seem to stand out in the sky, a few players seem to shine in various sports. However, it takes more than just stars to make a team complete. It takes all the members of the team working together to complete each play.

In sports we have one goal firmly set in our minds—to win.

The school spirit we display at games encourages our boys to fight for all they're worth. It is always nice to win, but the satisfaction of having done our best is just as great.

To Win Is Good—

Veloers Olson and Karen Brown help lead off the cheer. Yea! Rah! Rah! Volts!

Barb Humphries and Pat Bickler rise to unexpected heights as they bring the cheer to a close.

It looks as if "Hot Rod" (Marilyn Roddy) has the game all wrapped up.

At all our games and pep fests our students and faculty were led in cheers by our eight senior cheerleaders. This group of energetic girls promoted school spirit throughout the year in football, basketball, and hockey, with the help of two substitutes. As all our cheerleaders leave at the close of the year, they leave behind them their cheers and spirit for the new junior and sophomore squad who will continue cheering the Volts on to victory.

Mr. Cady didn't get to use his secret weapon this year—Gail Ernest.

This year the Volts' record wasn't very good in the wins and losses department. But as far as spirit goes, it was one of the best. The Volts were plagued with injuries throughout the season. Our co-captains, Ed Groff and Don Dax, both missed half of the season, each because of injuries.

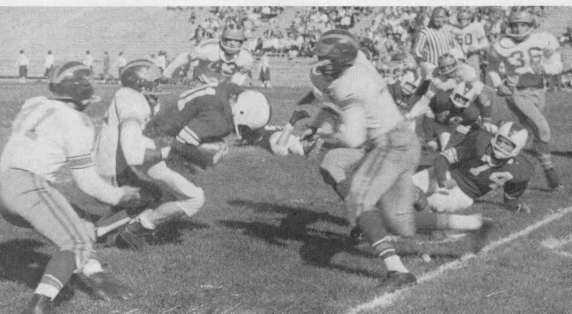

The season started out with a loss to South, and then to Marshall and Southwest. Our game with West was by far the best of the season that the Volts played, even though we lost. The rest of the season was taken care of with losses to North, Central, and Edison.

Our captains this year, Ed Groff and Don Dax, will give up their captainship to three very capable players for next year. They are John Hronski, Alan Awalt, and Asa Grigsby.

Is To Create Sportsmanship—

Our Basketball Team—

NO ONE can say the Volts weren't trying when they were defeated by South. Pictured are Gordy Buesgens and Bruce Borchert.

The Volts started out the season with a 40 to 38 win over Edison. After the Edison game the Volts seemed to lack something and lost to Marshall and North. The team then lost consecutive games to South and Henry. After the Henry game, the team came out on the floor against West and battled to their second win. The remainder of the season was taken up with losses to Central, Southwest, Roosevelt, and Washburn.

IT LOOKS as if Joe Yates is trying to get rid of the opposition. Also pictured are Mike Kelly, Chuck Berzins, and Pat Kelly.

If all there was to winning was practice, our crosscountry team would have made a bid for the top. Mr. Boyer is very proud of his boys and of lettermen Steve Kalland, Rodney Ritter, and Dan Ojeda. (Not Pictured) Dennis Lund was the only returning letterman this year. Most of the team were sophomores, so we should have one of the better teams next year.
