Craftsman

These are some of the hardest working people at Vocational. They provide students with up-to-the-minute information about our school activities, exciting stories, latest fashions, and sports results.

They snoop around the yearbook office like famous reporters. Their presence proves to be quite the silencer for groups working on secret plans or surprise happenings.

Boys State, Paul Waterman

Girls State, Holly Sculley

Boys And Girls State

Our two juniors, Holly Sculley and Paul Waterman, were selected to represent Vocational this year. Holly and Paul were selected for their outstanding efforts to become good American citizens.

The chosen juniors meet with other representatives for one week during the summer to study and participate in learning about the functions of our government.

In every group of people, there are those who are more outstanding than others. These are the people accepted into the National Honor Society. They have set high goals for themselves and have showed a willingness to work to achieve these goals.

Student Council

The Vocational Student Council is composed of a representative from each homeroom. Under the leadership of very fine class officers the council guides school activities and decides what is in the best interest of the school. It also serves as a forum for discussing matters between the faculty and student body.

Row 1: Joan Aykens, Laura Holmblad, Samuel Brown Jr., Les James, Ron Gehl, Walter Lipa, Chuck Thompson, Tim Tessman. Row 2: Philip Samek, Helen Bogucki, Roda Patie, Jackie Tuthill, Pat Saleck, Marjean Bjorn, Julie Lewis. Row 3: Bonnie Underhill, Roger Lipa, Irene Robigwez, Nancy Vick, Gaylen Bona, David Lenzmeier, Mary Ankney, Joy Furst. Row 4: Tamara Lewis, Georgia Lahd, Mr. Lindman, Pat Hammond, Mary Jo Wines.

Money makes it happen . . . and with that slogan in mind students at Vocational have a chance, every Wednesday, to put money into a savings account for future happenings. The hard-working home-room representatives collect the money, record the deposits, and turn them in to Mrs. Overn, banking supervisor.

Red Cross Youth, under the supervision of Miss Edbloom, once again proved Vocational students really care. The drive, "Happiness is their Bag," sent 136 friendship kits to children in Viet Nam.

This year Vocationalites also gave aid to GI's in Viet Nam. A new drive, under the direction of Mr. Walthers, raised money for requested guitars to provide music for GI's in Viet Nam.

Thespian Troupe No. 1707

Too often when you think of the selected members of the Thespian Troupe, you think only of those who have earned 10 points by acting in plays and programs. Do you realize that you can also be a member by putting in 100 hours as a member of the lighting, sound, or costume committees? Those who are honorary members are chosen by Mrs. Cynthia Anderson.

Vocettes

The Vocettes once again became active this year under the direction of Mrs. Bloom. They participated in Homecoming, Pep Fests, Christmas Program, and Valentines Program. When asked about the danceline group, Captain Bonnie Underhill commented, "This year's Vocettes were a group of great, enthusiastic girls. The Vocettes have really improved throughout the year, and I am proud of every one of them. The girls were hard workers and showed up for meetings and practices many mornings before school started. With the help of Mrs. Bloom, we've had a very memorable and successful year."

Football

A tense look A determined air
set the player into action.

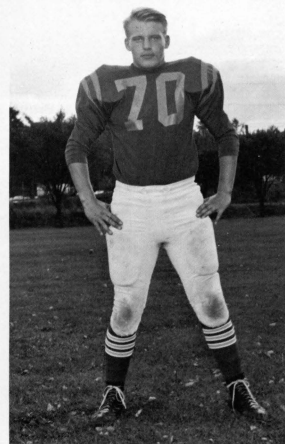

A switch of plays
A change of hands
The cheering crowd . . .

Then the bumps and bruises are soon forgotten in the moment of victory.

A test of endurance countless hours of running time is all-important.
 Slowly at first the breeze pressing gently against your face then faster and faster until the wind hits hard the end near, you force yourself to extra effort.
 Sweat streaming down your face you feel the lightness of suffering rewarded.

Standing: Willard Rohe, Tom Murphy, Rod Dorn, Bob Iskierka, Mike Vawracz, Jim Nedry, Mike McGrath, Henry Bishop, Mike Reinhart, Jerry Ferchette, Tom Fay, Sam Brown.

Basketball

The constant practice pays off as the player dribbles across the floor.
 The court is open the crowd tense
 he shoots—a basket!
 Tremendous cheers
 as the game rushes on.

celebrate your life in the city

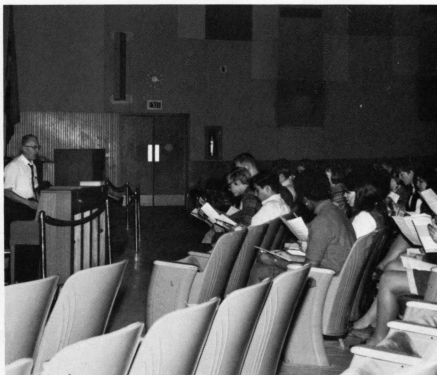

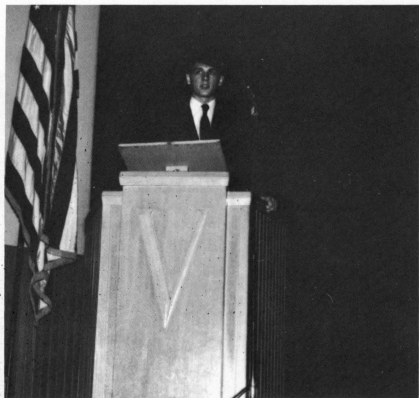

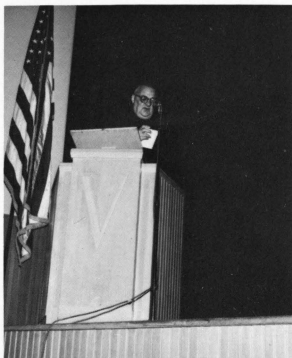

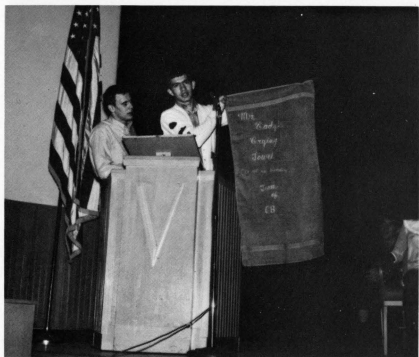

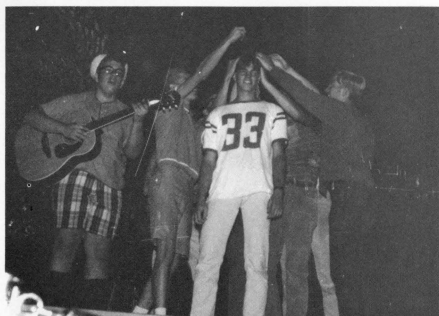

The auditorium darkens as a parade of fashion sways across the stage, cheerleaders jump with the enthusiasm of an oncoming football game, poetry enriches our minds as two members of the Guthrie Theater recite modern poems, the Moundsview Choir fill the room with music, the first Christmas reappears before our eyes as the drama class proves their talent. Donald Duck disgraces us all with tune "Litterbug, Litterbug, shame on you," future extravagance gleams in front of us with a film of 1999. Then . . .

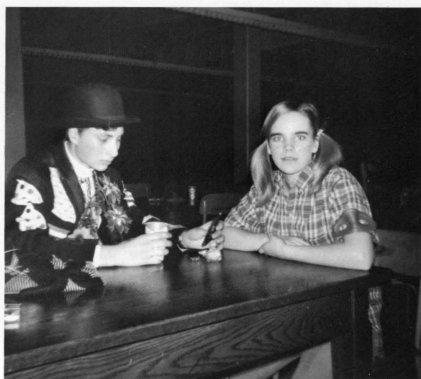

The lights go up and sophomores wait impatiently in their seats as juniors and seniors pass to their classes.

School Dances

The shuffling and swinging of the crowd, the throbbing music in your head, the scene of another successful dance at Voc!

Sounds of the Blue Surge swept across the room as Santa's helpers mingled with the crowd. Dancers sought the moving beat with an intoxicated air. The vibration of the drums marked the ending of a year to remember.

Senior

Banquet

Waiting in line complimenting one another filling our plates with food pretty girls in fancy dresses handsome boys in suits laughter and gaiety from each of the tables across the crowded room.

Soon music filled the air as the Prospectives begin to play the evening's activities came to an end leaving memories with everyone.

King Tom

Queen Marilynn

Snow Day

Snow Days buttons flashed through the halls buses jammed with enthusiastic seniors screams sounded as cardboard flew down the hills

snow smothered you with its sting Queen Marilynn and King Tom watched giggling girls sewing patches.
Snowflakes decorated the room the Sophisticated Soul set the beat an informal mood filled the air and marked the ending of another great Snow Day.

another year
ends
all we hold is our future
and memories
of the past

Joy,
It's too bad
you won't be here next year. We had fun this year. Good luck at West.

Love
Alice Johnson

Joy,
It's been fun having you in homeroom. I had you always had to go to typing, but anyway you should get a good mark in typing. Good luck in the future.

Always,
Rebbie Kaufmann

Be Joy.
I have good fun one the summer. Why an don't you find an animal. I get rid of Robertson. I get rid of future. I get rid of "Donna Harmon".

As long as the grapes grow on the vine

You will be a friend of mine

Cheryl Lee
LEADER

So, It's been a lot of fun with you all these years and make-up is not made from dirt! Hope you come back next year (I know you not. Too bad!) Love, Brenda
He Cuckoo

joy, fun
Have summer
this summer
with Frank, Mark, etc.! We'll miss you next year h.w.

joy.
We had a lot of fun this year
your hope to have your friendship always Ruth Van Keel

JOY,

It's been nice
knowing you in biology.
Have fun this summer.

Rada Rajec

Jay,
 It's been nice knowing you. So bad you have to leave, but have fun in your new school. Good luck!
 Shelly Lintner

[illegible]

Bob 1969 Good year and the best year to come. I will have great times this summer. I want to come.

Joy,

Roses are red

Violets are blue

But compared to you

I'm the almighty.

But somewhere, sometime, somehow, I hope never to see you again.

Good Luck

Steven Duda '71

Joy,

Good luck in the years to come.

Have fun this summer

Sandee Martini '69

will too!

and maybe Robertson year. We'll miss you won't be here next year. Too bad you Joy. It was fun this

Joy,
It's been fun
knowing you this year & thanks for lending me copy of your English paper. I am a sweet girl. I stay that way. I'm going to ~~be~~ ~~be~~
